

Camber Spine Announces Platinum Sponsorship of the 2018 Annual Clinical Assembly of ACOS

WAYNE, Pa., October 17, 2018

Camber Spine is pleased to announce their participation as the Platinum Sponsor of the 2018 Annual Clinical Assembly of the American College of Osteopathic Surgeons being held in Atlanta, Georgia on October 17-21st at the Atlanta Marriot Marquis.

“We are pleased to support the D.O. community”, says Seth Anderson, VP of Surgeon Relations. “Since its inception, Camber Spine has worked with dozens of Osteopathic Spine Surgeons incorporating their ideas into our implant designs to achieve better outcomes. We will be showcasing our two newest proprietary technology platforms at this show, SPIRA™ and ENZA® along with our full line of spinal implants.

ACOS provides physicians, residents in training, students, allied health professionals and exhibitors with valuable educational programming and opportunities to network with osteopathic surgeons from around the country.
